Placement Affirmation Letter

Please note that participation in this program does not guarantee job confirmation. However, it equips you with essential skills and enhances your chances of success in the interviews you take part.

Eligibility Criteria for PPT Graduate Placement Program:

✓ LIVE Session Attendance: We expect maximum attendance during the live session however understanding working professional requests, we mandate to attend at least two LIVE sessions per week and this maintains at least 70% overall attendance.

✓ Recording Sessions: We are investing a lot of our time and cost , over and above course, for students who had missed LIVE sessions, have to complete the recorded learning within seven days from the live class date. Failure to do so may push your candidature in abeyance upto the extent of disqualification.

✓ Assignment Submission: Submission of assignments, within the stipulated time in order to avoid losing your scores, directly related to your performance. Candidates should aim to achieve a minimum score of 40% in assignments as part of their course requirements.

✓ Active participation in your regular course along with PPT Program is mandatory.

✓ Candidates must be eligible to work in India as per the guidelines set by the Government of India.

✓ PW Skills will refer candidates to companies for interviews only with the candidate's prior consent.

✓ After securing a job offer, candidates are required to pass all background verifications as prescribed by the employer. Any lapses in verification are the sole responsibility of the candidate, and PW Skills holds no liability in this regard

Placement Opportunities & Flow

✓ PW Skills PPT Program helps candidates to get placed, as placement is extra support which we are providing beyond the course.

✓ Once a learner accepts an offer, he/she will not be eligible for the rest of the placements for a particular period of time.

✓ If learner is really not satisfied with the placement opportunity, then the candidate will be eligible to apply for another opportunity only after the course coordinator and hiring team discussion along with the approval of the management.

✓ In any exceptional cases where the student is unable to accept the offer, the placement committee will give the student another opportunity only after conducting a thorough investigation.

✓ Under all circumstances, candidates should maintain 100% attendance in all the interviews besides the duly completed tasks for that company.

✓ After every interview, the candidate is expected to share the list of questions faced by him/her in the interview for further guidance and training purposes.

✓ The candidates who are in placements are expected to be very active in their mails as the opportunities and placement updates will be shared via email.

✓ The candidates once applied to the company must have to hold back for the response. As the interview process and the time involved in responses depends upon the respective Company.

Suspension and Termination

- ✓ Unprofessional behavior, such as failing to show up for an interview or being caught bluffing in an interview, will result in exclusion from placements.
- ✓ Furthermore, irresponsible behavior, such as applying for a job and then failing to show up for it for unknown reasons, may result in the applicant's suspension from the placement process.
- ✓ If he/she fails to pursue the previously mentioned criteria, the applicant will be suspended from the placement process based on the situation.
- ✓ The candidate, who declines an offer from a company without a valid reason in the mail, will not be eligible to avail placements.
- ✓ After applying for an opportunity- If the candidate is found not completing a task given by the company or not showing up for interviews more than three times, and then he/she will be terminated from placements permanently.
- ✓ The candidates are not allowed to contact the company's POC directly without the knowledge of the placement team and the PW Skills team Coordinators.
- ✓ If we find any candidate sending irrelevant mails, messages or showing unprofessional behavior towards the companies may also lead to candidate termination as it made lead to lot of escalations in the client relationship and it will also impact on another candidates who are attending the interview with the certain companies.
- ✓ If a student fails, consecutively, five times in the first technical round (task), he/she will be kept on hold till they get ready for the placements. There upon, after the approval of the respective mentor, the candidate will be forwarded to the placement process, when ready.
- ✓ If a learner is not responsive after receiving the offer letter will be terminated from the placement as that offer might be helpful for some learners.
